

Election of the OSLC Governing Board will take place during the semi-annual meeting, pending the adoption of the Constitutional changes to Accountable Leadership Model of Governance. This board will consist of 6 members of OSLC. Our current Board of Directors has submitted the following names for election to this board: Cheryl Coyle, Dennis Krueger, Holly McElwain, Dave Niess, Chad Thompson, and Merle Zander.

Nominations for other names will be accepted through Wednesday, May 15th.

As you consider names for submission, please prayerful consider individuals who, as a member of the OSLC Governing Board, will be a person who...

- Has a deep commitment and love for:
 - a) Jesus Christ
 - b) Our Savior Lutheran Church and her mission and ministry
 - c) The Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod with her mission and ministry
- Demonstrates leadership abilities tempered with the Fruit of the Spirit
- Is able to work well with others, even through disagreements and conflicts, while handling both in Christian love and charity without internalizing those conflicts
- Willing to speak the truth in love
- Uses sound fiscal judgment
- Ability to see mission, ministry, and vision on a grand scale without being easily swayed by every wind of change or innovation
- Looks for solutions and recommendations, including creative ideas that enhance the mission and ministry of the congregation
- Open to reasonable risk taking and recognizes when risk is too great and needs to be tempered

As a member of the Board, those elected will also:

- 1) commit to daily devotion and to pray for each other.
- 2) commit to regular worship attendance.
- 3) commit to be first fruit givers (tithing).
- 4) receive an orientation to the OSLC GB and their responsibilities.
- 5) agree to provide support in Christian cooperation and unity to each other in performance of GB duties.
